

TreesForLife

CERTIFICATE

Trees For Carbon

Whyalla Veterinary Clinic

cumulatively offset 11,902 tonnes of carbon emissions

Native trees have been planted to help beautify the landscape, reduce erosion and salinity, absorb carbon and provide vital habitat and shelter for wildlife

01 July 2026

Jesscia McKelson
Chief Executive Officer

treesforlife.org.au

Trees For Life conserves and restores South Australian habitats so nature can flourish. Our vision is thriving landscapes that support a diversity of life.